Subject: California general construction stormwater permit

Wayne,

Thank you for orienting us to your project today. As I mentioned, here is the link to our website with information about the stormwater permit:

- http://www.waterboards.ca.gov/water\_issues/programs/stormwater/construction.shtml

You'll notice within that link is another link to the draft permit, which will be considered by the State Water Board at its September 2009 hearing:

- http://www.waterboards.ca.gov/water\_issues/programs/stormwater/constpermits.shtml

I suggest that you read the draft permit, rather than the current Permit (99-08-DWQ), since it is most likely that your project will be subject to the new/updated requirements.

Please let me know if you have questions.

-Christine
